When Can You Return to Work if You Have Experienced COVID-19 Symptoms?

If you are experiencing symptoms, you must stay home. You may return to work when the following conditions have been met:

1. You have a note from your medical provider or local health department that documents that you are cleared to return to work.
2. The note must indicate your diagnosis, that you are symptom free of COVID-19, and that you can work full duty with no restrictions.

The note must be provided to the CSD HR and/or your contracting agency BEFORE you return to your CSD assignment. Do not return to any assignment until you have been approved by CSD HR to do so.
